

Cigarette bin consisting of a brushed stainless steel tubular container \varnothing 150x157 mm with a 2 mm thick stainless steel plate bottom and a 2 mm thick stainless steel wall bracket. Cigarettes are extinguished on the upper part of the bracket, which is laser-cut with slits and an opening for the delivery of extinguished cigarettes. The container is removable, opening is by means of a lock with a triangular key and emptying through the top of the tube. Available with brushed stainless steel or coated stainless steel container. All fixings are in AISI304 stainless steel. Prepared with \varnothing 8 mm holes for fixing to existing wall with mechanical mechanical dowels (not included).

technical data

145x157 mm
H 190 mm

2 kg

Stainless steel

Prepared with \varnothing 8 mm holes for fixing to existing wall with mechanical mechanical dowels (not included)

